COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Sir:

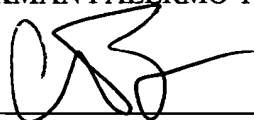

In the Statement of Reasons for Allowance in the Notice of Allowance mailed February 28, 2005, the Examiner characterized Claim 1 as a "method" claim with "a complex detailed series of 11 limitations." Further, in acknowledging that the prior art fails to anticipate or render obvious, the Examiner stated, "the prior art of record does not anticipate and does not make obvious the claim 1 (currently amended) detailed series of limitation."

The Applicant objects to the characterization of Claim 1 as comprising a "complex" or "detailed" series of 11 limitations. While readily acknowledging that Claim 1 may comprise 11 limitations, the Applicant strongly objects to any implication that Claim 1 is any more complex or detailed than any other new and non-obvious claim that is not anticipated by the prior art. Indeed, the Applicant submits Claim 1 is a clear and concise recitation of an embodiment of the invention.

Respectfully submitted,

HICKMAN PALERMO TRUONG & BECKER LLP
